ANALYSIS GROUP, INC. (economic & litigation consulting firm)

Chicago, IL

Senior Analyst

- Worked with a team to analyze asset-backed security and corporate bond data to estimate damages in the course of securities lending litigation. Wrote memos summarizing methodology and findings. The parties reached a settlement favorable to Analysis Group's client
- Managed analyst team in efforts to clean, analyze, and update large sales datasets in connection with antitrust litigation
- Constructed a dynamic interface using Visual Basic for Applications ("VBA") that allowed Analysis Group's client to specify parameters and carry out calculations on a large sales dataset. Program automated manual process previously used by client, ensuring accuracy of outputs and facilitating negotiations with the United States Department of Justice concerning anticompetitive behavior
- Reviewed SEC filings and analyst reports to assist in projecting the financial performance of a broadcasting company under different scenarios of royalty rate burdens
- Utilized SAS to clean and analyze large, intricate datasets in connection with both pharmaceutical and manufacturing antitrust litigation. These efforts included data validation, the building of analyzable datasets, and the construction of counterfactual models
- Evaluated product and pricing information to assist in defining the market for a new class of aviation navigation product
- Mentored new analysts, teaching them about company best practices, research tools and data resources, and commonly used software
- Developed and conducted VBA training for new analysts. Assisted with SAS training for new analysts
- Assisted with analyst recruiting during the 2012 and 2013 seasons, including conducting information sessions at the University of Chicago, reviewing resumes, and interviewing applicants

2011–2012

Analyst
